Father's Day. Heartbeat has been supporting the sanctity of human life for over 20 years.
The funds we collect with this fundraiser stay in our area. For more information call

Dear Parishioners,

It's my joy and pleasure to introduce myself as I begin my priestly ministry in Oregon and Bono. My name is Fr. John Christopher Jesudhason (Fr. Chris) and I am happy to begin as your new pastor on July 1.

I was ordained a religious priest, belonging to the Religious Order called Society of the Catholic Apostolate (Pallottines). My founder is St. Vincent Pallotti from Italy. The Charism of our founder is to revive faith and enkindle charity. We are also involved in motivating and moving the lay faithful. We work according to the signs of the time and by our mission we are missionaries. From our Order, there are Eleven of us working in this Diocese of Toledo. Among them Fr. Francis, Pastor of St. Patrick Church, Providence, Fr.
John Peter Lazaar and Fr. Shaya Anand Clement who will be working in St. Stephen, East Toledo and I are from the same province in India.

I am blessed. I am looking forward to getting to know St. Ignatius and Our Lady of Mount Carmel communities. I am grateful to Fr.
Keith Stripe who guided you all this time and he did a very phenomenal job and blessing to each of you. I will try to continue the mission which God has entrusted to me.

May God bless each one of us. Please do remember me in your prayers. Jesus I trust in you.
